Rules and Expectations:

Appropriate peer interaction:

- Students should not be alone with one another while at church building, in hotel rooms, cabins, etc...
- Students should not share blankets (including on van/bus trips) and should not lean, lie, or sit on one another.

Packing for events:

- No possession or use of alcohol, drugs, tobacco, weapons, fireworks, lighters, or explosives
- No offensive or immodest clothing (Shorts and skirts should be mid-thigh or longer in length. While at co-ed swimming events, girls are asked to wear swimming suits that cover the mid-drift. We ask that as parents and students, clothing be chosen and worn in such a way that will keep our students from struggling with the sin of lust as much as possible!)
- It is preferred that they are not carried at all unless otherwise noted, but all video games, movies, music, etc... should not be violent, sexual, or vulgar in nature (if you think it "might" be inappropriate, it probably is).

Van/bus rules:

- Students should not be in inappropriate physical contact (see guidelines above)
- Language and actions should be positive and Christ-like in nature
- All students should keep rear in a seat and, whenever possible, wear a seat belt
- All music, including on headphones, should be appropriate and not distract from a Christ-like attitude.

In general, all students should treat others (adults and peers), property (by staying out of others' stuff and not being destructive to property), and scheduled group activities (through participation) with a Christ-like spirit that displays love and respect.

Students who fail to comply with these expectations may be sent home at their parents' expense if other forms of discipline fail to address an issue.*

I, the student, have read the rules of conduct, the above evaluation of my health, and permission to participate in Youthreach activities. I agree to abide by the stated personal limitations and code of conduct.
